

Dániel Emánuel MRÁZ

Born: Budapest, 23rd March 1977

Since 2016 CEO and Member of the Board at Prolan Irányítástechnikai Zrt., a company specialized in industrial automation.

Between 2004 and 2013 he represented the Vienna based MP Corporate Finance in Hungary, later has been promoted to Head of Sector in Machinery, Electronics and IT, covering Europe. From 2013 onwards worked as private advisor for corporate capital transactions, strategic investments, buyouts and venture capital deals. He has been long time member of the Hungarian Private Equity and Venture Capital Association (HVCA).

From 2003 to 2004 served as surveillance officer, later as Head of Section at Hungarian Financial Supervisory Authority (now part of the National Bank, MNB)

Graduated in 2002 at the Budapest University of Economic Sciences and Public Administration (now called Corvinus University) on Faculties of International relations and Managerial economics (grade: excellent).

Beside his studies gained experiences at food manufacturer Stollwerck and business daily Világgazdaság in various positions.

Daniel has taken advanced level language exams both in English and in German languages.